1. (Re) Adolf Slavik, born 24 March 1918 in Vienna, is an Austrian citizen and a Roman Catholic. A lawyer, Slavik is married and resides at Thalgastrasse 4/11, Vienna IV. After completing intermediate school, he enrolled in the law course at the University of Vienna. In 1940 he received the Doctor of Law degree.
2. As a student, Slavik belonged to the Hitler Youth, but was active at the same time in the Austrian youth movement. In 1938, he was awarded the Hitler Youth memorial medal and gold decoration for his activity as illegal Hitler Youth leader in Simmering. He had been in the National Socialist Party (NSDAP) since March 1936 and carried membership card No. 6,243,960. In May 1938 he volunteered in the SS reserve unit (SS-Verfügungstruppe). After training he was sent by the leadership of the Hitler Youth to be inspector of Hitler Youth scouting activity (Streifeninspekt), where he was in charge of the supervision of youth hostels, etc. At the outbreak of war in 1939, he was called into the Elder Führer SS regiment, where he allegedly served as Obersturmführer until 1940. He was later granted an indefinite period of leave, and, as legal clerk (Referendar) of the Vienna Supreme Court (O.G. Oberlandesgericht), was assigned to the SS police court for military discipline. While he worked here till March 1942.
3. At this time Slavik was transferred back to active service and expelled from the Hitler Youth, because he was allegedly responsible for the leaflet campaign, known as "Der Kampf" (The Fight), which was a Reich German and leader of the "Hitler Youth".
